CHAPTER – VI

6.0 RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING BY INSIDERS

6.1 Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- 6.1.1 No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations or otherwise permitted under these Regulations.
- 6.1.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 6.1.3 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- 6.1.4. The Policy for determination of 'Legitimate Purpose' is attached and form part of this Code (Annexure-A).

Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a legitimate purpose shall be considered an Insider for purposes of these Regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons by the insider sharing the UPSI, to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations.

- 6.1.5. All Insiders shall ensure that details of the persons/entities, including Name and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available, with whom UPSI is shared, is immediately provided to the Compliance Officer, in the manner prescribed to enable maintenance of the structured digital database as required under SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.
- 6.1.6. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
- (a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - (b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Compliance Officer with the approval of the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of clause 6.1.6 of this code and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6.2 Limited access to confidential information:

All Persons who are privy to the confidential information shall, in preserving the confidentiality of information, and to prevent its wrongful dissemination, adopt among others but not limited to the following safeguards:

- To keep files containing confidential information secured.
- To keep computer files with adequate security of login through a password.

6.3 Need to know:

All persons, who are privy to unpublished Price Sensitive Information, shall handle the same strictly on a 'Need to Know' basis. This means the unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be disclosed only to those persons within the Company who need to know the same in the course of performance or discharge of their respective professional duties and whose possession of unpublished Price Sensitive Information will not in any manner give rise to a conflict of interest or likelihood of misuse of the information.

6.4 TRADING WHEN IN POSSESSION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION.

No Insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information unless such trades were according to the trading plan set up as per Clause 7.1 or otherwise permitted under the Regulations.

If a Person has traded in Securities, his trade would be presumed to have motivated by the knowledge & awareness of UPSI in his possession.

Provided, that the Insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

- i. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Regulation 3 of the Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such UPSI was not obtained under Clause 6.1.6. of this Code.

Provided further that such off-market trade shall be reported by the concerned Designated Person to the Company within 02 working days.

The Compliance Officer shall notify the particulars of such trade(s) to the Stock Exchanges, on which Securities are listed, within 02 working days from receipt of such disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- ii. the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under Clause 6.1.6. of this Code.

- iii. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona-fide transaction.
- iv. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable Regulations.

- v. in the case of non-individual Insiders: –

- (a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

- (b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the provisions of the Regulations and this Code of Conduct were not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

- vi. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with Clause 7.1 of this Code.

6.5 In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the SEBI.

6.6 SEBI may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

CHAPTER – VII

7.1. TRADING PLANS

7.1.1. An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

7.1.2. Such trading plan shall:–

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.1.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and this Code and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra-trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

7.1.4. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of Clause 6.1 of this Code.

7.1.5. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

CHAPTER – VIII

8.0 TRADING WINDOW:

8.0.1 The Compliance Officer shall specify a trading period, to be called “Trading Window”, for trading in the Securities. The Compliance Officer shall notify the closure of trading window on the website of the Company and/or notice board at the corporate office of the company when he/she determines that a Designated Person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. It shall be the duty of designated employee(s) to immediately inform the Compliance Officer about any UPSI in their possession.

- 8.0.2 For Financial Results, trading restriction period shall be applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.
- 8.0.3 The Compliance Officer shall determine the time for re-opening of the trading window, for which trading window is closed, after taking into account of various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight (48) hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 8.0.4 Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.
- 8.0.5 The remaining days of a year other than the days when trading restrictions as above are in force shall be called Valid Trading Window.

The Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealing in Securities either in their own name or in the name of their immediate relatives only in a valid Trading Window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of Securities when the Trading Window is closed.

- 8.0.6 The Compliance Officer shall maintain a register of the periods of Closed Trading Window, wherein he shall record the date of closure and opening of the trading window and the purpose for which trading window is closed. A performa of the register of periods of closure of Trading Window is given in Form I.
- 8.0.7 In case of Employee Stock Option Schemes (ESOPs), exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the Trading Window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the Trading Window is closed.

CHAPTER-IX

- (f) that he/she is aware that, he/she shall be liable to face penal consequences as set forth in the Code including disciplinary action, wage freeze, suspension etc. under the Code, in case the above declarations are found to be misleading or incorrect at any time;
- (g) that he/she undertakes not to transact in securities in sanctioned period in case trading window is declared closed subsequently;

(h) that he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

A combined proforma for Application-cum-Undertaking is annexed to this code as FORM-II.

All the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute documents as may be prescribed by the Compliance Officer from time-to-time. Such application for pre-dealing approval with enclosures must necessarily be sent through electronic mail followed by hard copies of all the documents. The e-mail for this purpose should be sent to: mb@pfcindia.com or to such other e-mail ID as may be notified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.

9.3(ii) Approval for pre-clearance for dealing in Securities:

- (a) Immediately on receipt of the pre-clearance application, the date and time of the receipt of the same shall be recorded thereon by the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer shall process the pre-clearance applications and if pre-clearance application is in accordance and in compliance with provisions of this Code, the Compliance Officer shall endeavor to communicate the pre-clearance immediately. Dealing in Securities by the Compliance Officer shall require prior clearance from the CMD.
- (b) Every approval letter shall be issued in Form-III. Every approval shall be dated and shall be valid for a period of seven trading day from the date of approval, within which trades that have been pre-cleared have to be executed by the designated person, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed. However, if trading window is closed after pre- approval for trading of security, the pre-approval so granted is automatically deemed to be withdrawn if such period is superseded by closure of Trading Window.

9.4 Completion of Pre-cleared Dealing:

- (a) The Designated Person or their immediate relatives who intend to deal in the Securities either in their own name or in the name of their immediate relatives shall ensure that they complete execution of every pre-cleared deal in the Securities as prescribed above within seven trading days from the date of the approval. The Designated Employee shall file within two trading days of the execution of the transaction, the details of such transaction, with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In the event of executing the transaction or not executing the transaction, a report to that effect shall be filed with the Compliance Officer (Form-IV).
- (b) If a deal is not executed by the Designated Person pursuant to the approval granted by the Compliance Officer within seven trading days, within which trades that have been pre-cleared were to be executed by the Designated Person, fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.

9.5 The Compliance Officer shall maintain a Register of Pre-clearance of trading of Securities and record therein the name and designation of the designated person submitting the application, date of the application, date and time of receipt of the application, nature of the transaction, number of Securities, consideration value, name of immediate relatives, if the transaction is in the name of immediate relatives and date and details of the actual transaction. A proforma of the Register is given in FORM- V.

CHAPTER –X

10. Holding Period:

- (a) A Designated Person shall not execute a Contra Trade within a period of 6 months from the date of trade. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate this Code. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 (15 of 1992).

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

- (b) The Compliance Officer shall also maintain a Register of "Waiver of restriction on Contra Trade" and shall record thereon the Designated persons' details of Securities for which waiver is granted, date of waiver and the grounds of the waiver. A proforma of the Register is given in FORM VI.
